

THE PROGRAM

The Teacher Education Program offers three undergraduate majors leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree: Elementary Education (PreK-6), Special Education (K-12), and Education Studies (non-licensure). The Program also offers a 4+1 education master's degree for aspiring teachers hoping to teach in one of 13 different content areas and an online master's degree in teacher leadership for practicing teachers. For more information about any of these degrees, please visit the VVU Teacher Education website.

THE MAJOR

The Education Studies major is for students who are interested in teaching but do not desire a Virginia teaching license. Students pursuing this major enjoy small class sizes, a broad-based liberal arts curriculum, and the opportunity to experience diverse teaching contexts. VVU offers education studies candidates c
